LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.
(By Barkentine Discovery.)
UNITED STATES.
OPENING OF CONGRESS—THE MESSAGE NOT DELIVERED.
There was a great outpouring of Washington people to the opening of the Fifty-third Congress yesterday. Unusual interest was attached to this Congress, because for the first time in many years the Democrats have control of both legislative branches as well as of the executive department, and because the men that assembled have to make laws to relieve the present financial stress as well as to fulfill some of the pledges of the dominant political party.

In the House Crisp was nominated for Speaker by the Democrats, Jerry Simpson by the Republicans. The ballot stood: Crisp 214, Reed 122, Simpson 7. Crisp took the oath of office from O'Neill of Massachusetts, and then swore in the other members.

In the Senate, after preliminaries, a committee was appointed to notify the House and the President that the Senate was in session. Then the death of Senator Stanford of California was communicated to the Senate by White of that State, and as a mark of respect the Senate adjourned till to-day. This prevented the reception of the President's message that day.

The President's message is said to be brief, containing not more than 3000 words. Beyond the fact that it is largely devoted to financial matters nothing reliable can be learned in regard to it. It is understood, though, that he recommends the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act.

The free-silver Democrats express themselves agreeably surprised at what they understand to be the moderation of the President's recommendations. While recommending the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act, they understand he recognizes silver as one of the money metals which must be maintained, but points out that, with the present attitude of European countries, a proper ratio between gold and silver cannot be maintained by this country alone. Therefore, he does not favor the coinage of silver under the present conditions except for subsidary purposes. He thinks in this way Europe can be coerced into an international agreement more favorable than heretofore. He favors silver on a parity with gold, stands by the platform of 1892, but says that the platform cannot be carried out because a fixed parity cannot be maintained.

Prominent Democrats of both wings have been given to understand that these are the President's views.
The intention is that Cockran shall at the first opportunity introduce a bill to repeal the Sherman act outright, without any condition or substitutes.

Cullerson, or some one, will introduce a bill which will provide for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act and provide for the coinage of silver without charge for mintage at the ratio of 16 to 1.
The bill, it is understood, in the working, will follow as closely as may be section 7 of the Democratic platform of 1892, which favors the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or a charge of mintage. But the dollar unit of the coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts. By this means it is thought the Democratic opponents of the bill thus framed will be put in an attitude before the country of opposing their own platform.

The World's Washington special says: The following is an authoritative statement regarding President Cleveland's message:
He dwells most particularly upon the deplorable condition of the country as it affects the masses.
Bankers and brokers and capitalists, he reasons, can take care of themselves, but the workmen are practically helpless when such a condition of affairs as now prevail exists.
To substantiate this statement he shows in concise language the actual effect of the law known as the Sherman act now in force. He calls attention to the dearth of confidence arising therefrom.
He deals not in theories, but in facts, to demonstrate the truth of his assertion that the burden inflicted upon the country by this unwise law falls most heavily upon the workmen. It is for this reason he believes that the demand of the country for repeal is so strong and universal.

It is the plain duty of all patriotic citizens entrusted with the responsibility of government to heed such a demand therefore. He recommends unconditional repeal without a hint of compromise or substitute of any kind.
